

Press Release Intelligent Luggage Ltd.

Intelligent Luggage has teamed up with Trace Me™.

Trace Me™ is the unique luggage recovery system that all airports throughout the world have accepted as the premier recovery system for repatriating luggage that goes missing. With over 40million pieces of lost luggage every year Trace Me is the very best way to safeguard your valuables, inexpensive and easy to use Trace Me by Intelligent Luggage is the simple tagging system that has bar code unique identity for every case.

If your luggage is mislaid by your airline then a text or e mail recovery plan is instigated by the tag, clever and innovative and costing a few pounds your favourite travelling items will get back to you. For details contact Intelligent Luggage, who will launch Trace Me at the Las Vegas Travel Show 2010.
