Intelligent Luggage Press Release - Self weighing suitcases up to 50kg weighing performance at the touch of a button – www.selfweighingsuitcase.com

Intelligent Luggage supplies self-weighing suitcases that weigh the contents and case at the touch of a button. The ranges are competitively priced but offer immensely strong and secure travel ware.

Designed in the UK the suitcases are ROHS tested for safety and specifically designed for the professional traveller. The ranges are available in stores throughout the UK with Milton Keynes Based Argos as a premier partner.

Designer Jing Li has worked on the products with the factory design team to produce a range that delivers high performance luggage that can be packed to the airline weight limit with confidence that a weight penalty fine will not be levied on the unsuspecting traveller.

Director Bob Feltham said ‘every traveller gets caught out from time to time with weight penalties, the fines are bigger and the limit’s more restrictive every journey. This range of suitcases allows travellers to get the maximum benefit of their weight allowance outbound and inbound with no worries.’
